

| | | | | | | | |
|------|--------------------------------------|---------------------------------------|--------------------|--------------|---------------------------------|------------------------------|----------|
| Home | Cancer Screening Tests / Tobacco Use | Information, Referral, and Navigation | Patient Assistance | Medical Care | Survivorship and Support Groups | National and State Resources | About Us |
|------|--------------------------------------|---------------------------------------|--------------------|--------------|---------------------------------|------------------------------|----------|

No matter where we live in Kentucky, we can quickly access cancer resources relevant to where we live. KCP maintains Pathfinder, an online, searchable guide to services provided in communities across Kentucky. If you would like to schedule a Pathfinder presentation for your organization, or if you have a resource you would like to share on Pathfinder, please contact your Regional Cancer Control Specialist.

www.kycancerprogram.org